DHAREPPA CHANAGE

With over five years of immersive experience in the realm of graphic design, I bring to the table a profound expertise in crafting visually captivating designs that seamlessly convey messages with precision and impact. Throughout my career journey, I have been entrusted with a diverse array of projects, ranging from comprehensive branding initiatives to intricate print design endeavors, as well as dynamic short video and GIF productions. Each project has not only honed my technical skills but also deepened my understanding of the intricate interplay between design elements and communication objectives. As an instructor, I am eager to share this wealth of knowledge and practical insights, guiding aspiring designers toward unlocking their full creative potential and mastering the art of visual storytelling.
